

A new look at music teaching

THE WILLEMS® TEACHING METHOD INTRODUCTION AND ADVANCED TRAINING COURSE

21ST TO THE 24TH JULY 2016
LLÍRIA (VALENCIA - SPAIN)

PRESENTATION

The Fédération Internationale Willems® will be organising, in Lliria-València, between the 21st and the 24th July 2016, an introductory and advanced training course covering the teaching methods developed by Edgar Willems. The course is aimed at :

1. Musicians, students, teachers, educators, professionals dealing with young children and those involved in music in various contexts (schools, hospitals, institutions) ... as well as for simple music lovers.

The course will help provide tools to help expand the teaching of music, touching upon physical, cognitive and emotional aspects of the professional field.

The Willems approach is based upon the psychological relationships between music, the human being and the world around us - using a methodology inspired directly by, and respectful of, these relationships.

It is an active musical education system, calling upon openness, impregnation, reproduction, in addition to self-expression and inventiveness.

2) Those persons who have already received a Willems® Diploma, wanting to further their training and improve their understanding.

The courses will be led by instructors who are specialists in their particular field of musical intervention, professors of music from schools, universities and conservatories :

Franca Bertoli-Cividino (IT) / Eulàlia Casso i Samsó (ESP) / Béatrice Chapuis-Westphal (FR) / Nicole Corti (FR) / Christophe Lazerges (FR) / María Ángeles Pérez Lancho (ESP) / Magali Perol-Dumora (FR) / Christophe Voidey (FR)
